

Programme on Import Documentation and Procedures

Reducing Landed Cost of Imports ?

Thursday, December 15, 2016 • 9.30 a.m. to 5.00 p.m.

Venue: AMA Complex, ATIRA Campus, Vastrapur, AHMEDABAD.

- Rationale : All Importers be it traders or manufacturers have to now focus on reducing “Landed cost of Imports”, to be profitable in their business endeavour. This is because of local market becoming competitive day by day and economy slow down overseas. Lack of knowledge and awareness on Import Documentation and Procedures very often results in delays in clearance of Import Shipment causing demurrages and container detention charges. To be effective in handling imports, the objective of each document and procedure compliances have to be understood and complied with.
With this end in view, the New Government has initiated various measures to simplify the documentation pertaining to import.
- Objective : The objective of this One Day programme is to acquaint the participants with sequence of Documents covering Foreign Trade Policy, Customs, FEMA and related Laws.
- For Whom : This One Day programme will be useful to all those engaged in Import as business as well as Professional. The programme would be of particular interest to finance executives, commercial managers, CHA's and Freight Forwarders.
